FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Staff Selection, Applications, and Interviews add-on module launched by ResLife Portal

Residence Life professional staff can track multiple workflows for student applicants of residence life roles as well as schedule applicant interviews.

San Diego, California – December 2018

ResLife Portal, a web-based residence life management system, has launched a new Staff Selection Add-On module available for Paid Subscription plan. The module includes capabilities for Staff Selection, Applications, and Interviews. "We are excited to launch this module, since it is now one of the largest and most robust modules of the system," stated Frank Garofalo, Principal Consultant for ResLife Portal.

The screenshot displays the ResLife Portal interface for Bridger University. The main heading is 'Staff Selection'. Below this, there are three summary cards: 'Mode Applications Open/Active', '19 Applicants', '4 Interview Applicants', and '4 Applicant Candidates'. A navigation bar includes 'Tasks (9)', 'Applicants (19)', 'Interview Schedule (6)', 'Questionnaires (26)', and 'Audiences (4)'. The 'Manage Interview Schedule' section features a table with the following data:
